

Be Thou My Vision

Who Am I?

Week 4

08/16/20

1 Corinthians 2:6-16 & 1 Corinthians 3:1-3

Natural Man

Natural Man is someone who lives in their natural state _____ being a child of God.

The most common factor in why many turn away from God is that in order to follow him, we must _____ completely.

Often this means letting go of something that simply _____ more than the individual is willing to pay.

The Natural Man understands the words of Scripture but calls them _____. He finds no _____ in following Christ.

Spirit Man

Spirit man is one that has accepted Jesus Christ as Savior, has _____ the Holy Spirit, and is _____ in a spiritual state.

The Spirit Man looks at the world with the _____ of Christ.

The Spirit Man _____ Scripture through the Holy Spirit and gives it the _____ value.

Carnal Man

Carnal Man is _____ into God's family, but he lives and behaves as a man in a _____ state living according to his _____ desires.

He is a _____ who has not reached spiritual maturity and is controlled by his old sin nature.

Instead of following the Holy Spirit, he _____ the things the world offers: physical pleasure, everything he sees, and _____ in his achievements and possessions.

The Carnal Man _____ he is a Christian and by doing so shows the world Christians are no _____ than anyone else.

There is no bad place to begin, as long as we _____ and _____ from where we are.

We need the _____ to understand the Spirit and we need the _____ to understand the Scripture. They are two sides of the same _____.

Next Steps

___ I will consider who I am in this message.

___ I will ask God to show me where I am and help me to grow closer to him.

___ If I feel "something" nagging me to talk to someone about my spiritual journey, I will do it.

 Please wait for the ushers to direct you in exiting this service.*